

THE LONDON TEXTILE FAIR

SHOW REPORT – January 2018

This January The London Textile Fair has continued to surpass itself: 5790 visitors in 2 days, with a 4% increase from July 2017. TLTF presented a complete overview of what the European industry has to offer: around 475 exhibitors, 98% of which coming from Europe and Turkey.

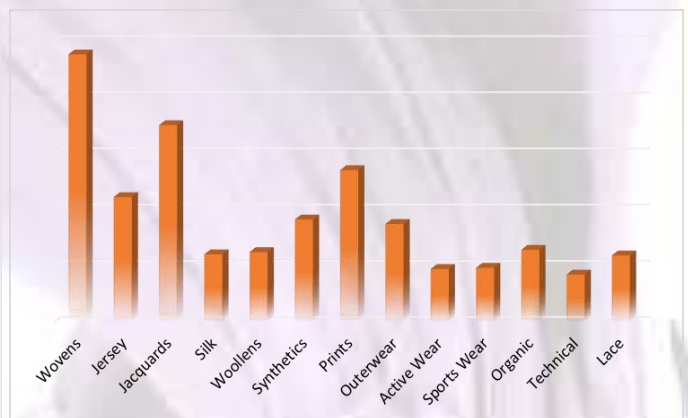

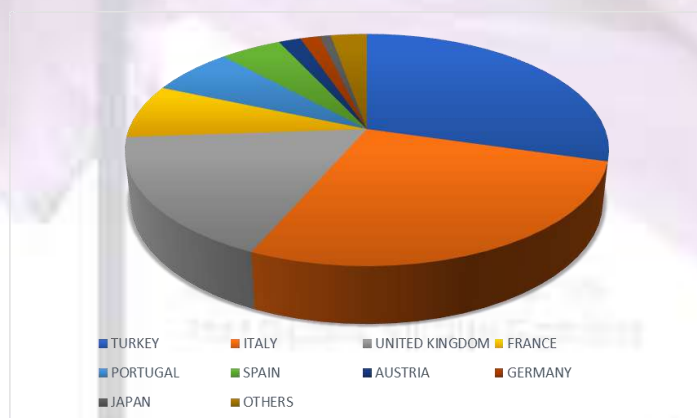

EXHIBITORS PROFILE

4 halls with a total of 475 exhibitors for the first show of 2018.

Fashion Textiles and Accessories cover together more than 90% of the overall exhibiting space, with a stable presence for Print studios and Vintage Garments. 393 fashion fabrics manufacturers, 35 of which for the first time at TLTF

Italian and Turkish presence is strong as usual within the fashion fabrics hall, covering together more than the 50% of the exhibiting space, followed by United Kingdom (17%), France (8%), Portugal (7%) and Spain (5%).

Exhibitors from 25 Countries had the unique opportunity to showcase their Spring/Summer 2019 pre-collections to the UK market with focus on wovens, jacquards, prints and jerseys. Increasing attention on technical and denim which will be presented at Texpfusion (20/21 March 2018) in two dedicated halls. www.texpfusion.co.uk
